Become a Trainer for Narrative 4!

Narrative 4 is seeking driven individuals to join its global team of trainers. Narrative 4 Trainers are eminently skilled people that train educators to facilitate story exchanges (our core methodology) with fidelity and integrity across a global platform. Trainers work closely with the Director of Global Programs and a team of highly skilled practitioners – all while ensuring they represent the values of the organization.

Activities include:

- Articulate N4 mission & vision
- Train facilitators to run online and in-person story exchanges using N4 methodology
- Facilitate online and in-person story exchanges using N4 methodology
- Conduct professional development sessions to support educators and facilitators
- Participate in ongoing feedback conversations with the Dir. Global Programs to ensure fidelity, integrity, continuous improvement of global programs
- Develop relationships with a cohort of N4 trainers
- Report all necessary data points back to Narrative 4

We seek highly skilled facilitators (both online and in-person), who have experience leading professional development in diverse settings AND are highly empathetic. Some experience with K-12 education and arts-based programming is preferred, but not essential.

Contract position: $28/hr. Number of hours is flexible (10 hours minimum per month).

We are looking to hire trainers in or around the Southeast, Midwest and Pacific Northwest, with priority given to applicants in the following cities: Nashville, TN, Lafayette, LA, Pflugerville, TX, Jackson, MS, Chicago, IL, Moorhead, MN, Milwaukee, WI, Boise, ID, Portland, OR, and Seattle, WA.

ABOUT NARRATIVE 4

Narrative 4 is a global organization driven by artists, shaped by educators and led by students. Our core methodology, the story exchange, is designed to help students and adults understand that their voices, stories, actions and lives matter, and that they have the power to change, rebuild and revolutionize systems. Our vision is a world where young adults lead with empathy.

Today, Narrative 4 is working in four continents, sixteen countries, and eighteen US states. Our global headquarters are in New York City and we have an office in Limerick, Ireland.
